

William S. Haynes Instrument Trial Form

Thank you for your interest in Wm. S. Haynes flutes and piccolos. We are pleased to offer you the opportunity to try a handmade instrument. We do ask that you remain mindful of the following:

- ❖ The trial period is five days.
- ❖ Rings and jewelry can easily damage an instrument. To avoid extra charges, please remove all jewelry before playing. Removal of scratches or dents will be charged at $85 per hour.
- ❖ Dry the inside of the flute after playing with the cleaning rod and a lint-free cloth.
- ❖ After playing, carefully wipe the headjoint, footjoint, body and keys to remove all fingerprints.
- ❖ Keep the instrument in the case when not being played.
- ❖ You must be 21 years or older to request a trial.
- ❖ If the instrument is lost, stolen or damaged, you agree to pay the full purchase price within 48 hours of the incident.

The William S. Haynes Company charges $55 per instrument and $25 per headjoint trial. This covers shipping and insurance to you. At the completion of the trial period, please pack the flute in the box provided and return it to us by UPS, FedEx or Registered Mail. Should you choose to purchase a Haynes flute, piccolo or headjoint within 30 days of your trial, we will apply the trial fee as a credit to your purchase.

Please be extremely careful with the trial instrument. Any damage due to accident or neglect will be charged to you at the rate of $85 per hour. Fingerprints left on the flute may tarnish more quickly than you realize. To avoid repair fees, be sure to return the trial instrument in the condition in which you received it.

We are thrilled that you are interested in playing a Haynes flute! We look forward to welcoming you to the ranks of the many world-class artists playing the most revered name in American flutemaking.
